MATURE AGE ENTRY TRAINING PROGRAMME

Offered by the Institute Of Distance Education (IDE)

The University of Eswatini has introduced a short-term Mature Age Entry-Pre-Entry Training Programme for the candidates who wish to be admitted to the University programmes through Mature Age Entry (MAE) Examination. The training will give the applicants an overview of the examination papers that they wish to write. It will enhance the applicants' performance in the MAE examination. Further the candidates will be provided with course manuals which facilitate them to prepare the MAE examination during and after the training without any difficulty.

The MAE training programme covers the following 5 subject papers:

- a) English Language
- b) Mathematics
- c) Combined Science
- d) Combined Commerce
- e) Aptitude Test

Application for Training

- Please indicate by ticking whether you want to join the training or not in the Mature Age Entry Application Form.
- Please pay the Required fee for the Training when you pay for your application
- Please register for the training when you submit your application online.
- Ensure that you have selected all the subjects you wish to take for the Mature Age Entry Pre Entry Training Programme.
- Please bring your proof of payment when you come for training so that you can use it to collect your manuals at UNESWA. The date for the collection of training manual will be before the training commences from the 9th April 2022.
